

Unit 1: The Gifts of Youth – Test 1 (ANSWER KEY)

I. Reading Comprehension (5 points)

1. Why is youth considered an important stage in life?

Because it is the period when people develop their talents and shape their future.

2. What motivates many young people according to the text?

They are motivated to achieve their goals and fulfill their dreams.

3. What causes conflicts between young people and adults?

The generation gap causes conflicts between young people and adults.

4. Find a word in the text which means 'strong desire to succeed'.

Motivated

5. Are young people a positive or negative force in society? Justify from the text.

They are a positive force because they are a source of energy and innovation for society.

II. Language Section (10 points)

A. Fill in the gaps with the correct words:

1. opinion
2. motivated
3. generation gap
4. priority

B. Give the correct form of the words in brackets:

1. responsible
2. talented
3. motivated
4. vigor

C. Put the verbs between brackets in the correct form:

1. to study
2. taking
3. respect
4. to join
5. helping
6. rewrite

D. Match each sentence to its function:

1. c
2. a
3. b
4. d
5. b
6. a

III. Writing (5 points)

Example 1

I admire my friend Yassine because he is a hardworking and motivated young person. He is tall and slim, with short black hair and a friendly smile. Yassine is very polite, responsible, and always ready to help others. He is talented in football and spends his free time training with his team. Moreover, he is serious about his studies and wants to become an engineer in the future. I admire him because he balances his education and hobbies successfully and sets a good example for other young people.

Example 2

I admire my sister Sara because she represents the true gifts of youth. She is of medium height, with long brown hair and a calm appearance. Sara is kind, confident, and very creative. She loves drawing and often designs beautiful pictures in her free time. In addition, she is active in school clubs and likes expressing her opinions during discussions. I admire her because she believes in herself, works hard to achieve her goals, and always inspires others to be positive and ambitious.

