

Unit 1: The Gifts of Youth – Test 2

I. Reading Comprehension (5 points)

Young people play a vital role in shaping the future of their communities. Thanks to their creativity and enthusiasm, they are often the driving force behind social and cultural change. Many youths are eager to learn new skills, use technology wisely, and take initiative to solve problems around them.

Nevertheless, youth can also face challenges such as lack of experience and pressure from society. Without proper guidance, some young people may lose direction or confidence. Therefore, families and schools must support youths by encouraging responsibility, teamwork, and positive values so that they can fully develop their potential.

Answer these questions:

1. What role do young people play in society according to the text?
2. Mention two qualities that characterize youth.
3. What challenges can young people face?
